

Blaine Auxiliary Communications Service

Emergency Communications Open House

Saturday, January 24th, 10:00 am to 1:00 pm
Blaine Public Library Public Meeting Room
610 3rd Street, Blaine Washington 98230

Sponsored by the Blaine Auxiliary Communications Service
Licensed Amateur Radio Operators Volunteering with the Blaine Police Department
<http://www.blaineacs.org>

- Watch ACS Community Service Volunteers in action. Learn about Blaine ACS and our Emergency Communications Network.
- Don't be a victim! Learn about preparing yourself and your family for an emergency. Learn how to assemble a bug-out kit.
- See ham radio operating demonstrations; talk on a radio; win a door prize.

- Tour the Blaine ACS Mobile Command Post. See VHF, UHF, HF, Marine and Aviation radios.
- Watch a radio being built. Learn about getting your amateur radio license.
- Join ACS and serve your community.
- Meet ACS members and discuss your interests.
- Enjoy coffee and pastries.